Although England is rife with conflict under the reign of Edward II, even in such times the brutal slaughter of an entire family - right down to a babe in arms - still has the power to shock. Three further murders follow, and bailiff Simon Puttock is drawn into a web of intrigue, vengeance, power and greed as Roger Mortimer charges him to investigate the killings. (English)

Graham Moore*The Holmes Affair*300pp Tp $32.95

Modern-day New York. When the world's leading Doylean scholar is found murdered in his hotel room, only literary researcher Harold White is familiar enough with the Holmes novels to recognise the killer's clues - leading him not only to a murderer prepared to stop at nothing, but also to the mystery of Conan Doyle's missing diary... and the secret that Conan Doyle, 100 years earlier, risked everything to expose... (American)

Giordano Bruno #1. England, 1583. Radical monk Giordano Bruno, with his theories of astronomy and extraterrestrial life, has fled the Inquisition for the court of Elizabeth I, attracting the attention of spymaster Francis Walsingham. When Bruno is sent undercover to Oxford - a hotbed of French dissent - he finds himself drawn into college intrigues, investigating a series of murders - each linked by a letter offering clues. But is Bruno the next target? (English)

S J Parris*Prophecy*416pp Tp $32.99

Giordano Bruno #2. England, 1583. England's tentative peace is under threat when one of the Queen Elizabeth's young maids is found murdered inside the palace walls. Meanwhile, Giordano Bruno - working for spymaster Francis Walsingham at the French Embassy - closely monitors a Catholic conspiracy funded by King Philip of Spain. Bruno soon believes there's a connection between the murdered girl and the conspirators at the embassy. (English)

Priscilla Royal*Chambers of Death*250pp Pb $24.95

Medieval Mystery #6. When one of her company falls ill on a return journey to Tyndal, Prioress Eleanor accepts lodging at a nearby manor. There, the master's wife is having an affair with the groom, his eldest son is obsessed with religion, and his youngest son, bound for the Church, shows more interest in lute playing. It is no surprise when someone's throat is cut. Can Eleanor unravel the murder before the killer strikes again? (American)

Death and the Maiden 384pp Tp $32.95

Dr Max Liebermann #6. Vienna, 1903. An opera diva, Ida Rosenkrantz, is found dead in her luxurious villa – supposedly overdosed on morphine, though an autopsy suggests sinister possibilities.

Detective Inspector Oskar Rheinhardt seeks the assistance of his friend, psychoanalyst Dr Max Liebermann. Their investigations will soon pit the Mayor of Vienna, Karl Lueger, as the prime suspect. With elections only months away, the case becomes politically explosive! (English)

Harry Markopolos

No One Would Listen 376pp Pb $22.95

The story of how the Harry Markopolos - a little-known number cruncher from a Boston equity derivatives firm - uncovered Bernie Madoff's scam years before it made headlines, and how they desperately tried to warn the government, the industry, and the financial press. Page by page, Markopolos details his pursuit of the greatest financial criminal in history, revealing the massive fraud and governmental incompetence that changed thousands of lives. (American)

Stella Sands

The Good Son 272pp Pb $13.95

This volume details the brutal murder of Rick and Suzanna Wamsley, who - after giving their children everything they ever wanted - were both killed by their son Andrew and his teenage girlfriend, Chelsea Richardson. Although Rick and Suzanna disapproved of Chelsea - who was from the 'wrong side of the tracks' - Andrew also stood to inherit two million dollars in the event of his parents' deaths. (American)

CRIME NON-FICTION

Rachael Jane Chin

Nice Girl 305pp Tp $29.99

This is the story of Australian Keli Lane - water polo champion and elite private school teacher - who did not want children, yet became pregnant five times in seven years! She had two abortions and three births. At no time did her family, friends or lovers know she was pregnant. Two babies were adopted and one, Tegan Lane, went missing. Since Tegan's disappearance, Keli has been charged with her murder. (Australian)

Owen Dudley Edwards
Burke and Hare

320pp Pb $24.95

In a boarding house in West Port, an old army pensioner dies of natural causes. Instead of burying the body, the landlord William Hare, and his friend William Burke, fill the coffin with bark and sell the corpse to Dr Robert Knox, an ambitious Edinburgh anatomist.

After making a profit, Burke and Hare decide to suffocate another tenant. So begins the criminal career of the most notorious double act in serial killing: the infamous Burke and Hare murders. (Irish)

James Morton

Kings of Stings 336pp Tp $32.99

In this volume, Morton and Lobez look at the careers of the highly talented swindlers and their tricks, including schemes such as changing paper into banknotes; selling Melbourne's Tramway sheds; horse and dog doping; fixing fights and athletic races; faking deaths; forging paintings; impersonating aristocracy... In fact, anything necessary to separate the unwary from their money over the course of the last 150 years! (English)

Jane Robins

The Magnificent Spilsbury and the Case of the Brides in the Bath

304pp Pb $22.99

Bessie Mundy, Alice Burnham and Margaret Lofty were spinsters who were desperate to marry. Each woman met a smooth-talking stranger who promised her a better life. Each woman fell under his spell and became his wife. But marriage soon turned into a terrifying experience and England turned to a young forensic pathologist, Bernard Spilsbury, to explain why young women were suddenly expiring in their baths... (English)

Blood Stains

352pp Pb $11.95

In 1993, 12-year-old Stephanie was raped and bludgeoned to death with an axe. Stephanie's stepfather, Ricky McGinn, was convicted and sentenced to death for the murder. But 18 minutes before execution time, the sentence was postponed so his DNA could be tested against blood found at the crime scene... (American)

Douglas Starr

The Killer of Little Shepherds

320pp Tp $35

At the end of the 19th century, serial murderer Joseph Vacher terrorised the French countryside, eluding authorities for years - until he ran up against prosecutor Emile Fourquet and Dr Alexandre Lacassagne, the era's most renowned criminologist. With drama and detail, Douglas Starr revisits Vacher's infamous crime wave, interweaving the story of how Lacassagne and his colleagues developed forensic science as we know it. (American)
