ABBEY'S TURNS 40: A Continuing Retrospective. Part 6

Over the years, we have attempted a couple of big celebrations. The first was in 1990 when, along with the late Dulcie Stretton and the Fairmont Hotel, we held a lavish weekend party at the Fairmont in Leura to celebrate Agatha Christie's Centenary. There was a formal dinner with a playlet put on by the Genesians, competitions and special displays of Agatha Christie titles, including many first editions, with an antique desk and 1920s typewriter. I had a photograph taken of me sitting at the desk, but I can't seem to lay my hands on it now. The event certainly couldn't have been achieved without the indefatigable Dulcie Stretton, who really put it all together. The weekend was a great success with over 100 people in attendance.

The second Centenary we celebrated was for Dorothy L Sayers in 1993. The party was held in the shop, again organised with the help of Dulcie. This was not as lavish as the Christie Centenary, but a good time was had by all. Our special guests were Bunter (whose real name I can't seem to recall) and Lord Peter Wimsey (Graham Keating, who was also the Sydney Town Crier).

Dulcie was a wonderful friend and customer of Abbey's. She organised our 25th Birthday Celebration, with authors at lunch and in the evening, running for two weeks. I am sure Eve will tell you more about these events in her reminiscences. - Peter

Known variously as the Tractor, the Accountant, Uncle Bernie and the Axe Man, he was a master of reinvention who set about restoring the organisation's power with a strategy that took the mafia underground and infiltrated business, law enforcement and politics at the highest levels. Due Jun (English)

Ben MACINTYRE

For Your Eyes Only: Ian Fleming and James Bond 224pp Hb $49.95

This book explores how Fleming's 007 emerged against the background of WWII and the Cold War, and how Bond's world was based on the realities (and fantasies) of Fleming's life as a wartime spy-master and peacetime bon viveur. Due Jun (English)

Robert MANN & Miryam WILLIAMSON
Forensic Detective: How I Cracked the World's Toughest Cases 272pp Pb $22.95

Mass graves, actual skeletons in the closet, bizarre clues and buried secrets - they're all in a day's work for forensic anthropologist Robert Mann. He offers a portrait of a profession which is gruesome, yet compelling. Due Jun (American)

Michelle McPHEE

Heartless: The True Story of Neil Entwistle and the Cold-Blooded Murder of His Wife and Child 256pp Pb $13.95

Neil seemed like a dream come true for Rachel: a handsome, impeccably mannered, success-oriented Englishman, the fairytale husband she had dreamed of meeting. By the time Neil and Rachel Entwistle were husband and wife, living the good life in a New England town, it was too late to guess the truth: that beneath Neil's good looks and manners was a deceit and darkness... Due Jun (American)

Corey MITCHELL

Pure Murder 320pp Pb $13.95

Mitchell reveals the horrifying true story of the double murder of Jennifer Ertman and Elizabeth Pea, two innocent teens who were killed in a Houston park in 1993. Due Jun (American)

Kate SUMMERSCALE

Suspicion of Mr Whicher: Or the Murder at Road Hill House 384pp Tp $29.95

It is 1860 and the Kent family lies asleep. The family wakes the next morning to a horrific discovery: an unimaginably gruesome murder has taken place in their home and the guilty party is surely still among them. Amidst national hysteria, Jack Whicher of Scotland Yard reaches Road Hill House facing an unenviable task: to solve a case in which the grieving family are the suspects. Due Jun (English)

Roy WENZL et al

Bind, Torture, Kill: The Inside Story of the Serial Killer Next Door 352pp Pb $15.95

For 31 years, an unremarkable family man stalked, killed and terrorised the people of Wichita, Kansas. Due Jun (American)

Alex WERNER (Ed)

Jack the Ripper and the East End 320pp Hb $79.95

In 1888, Whitechapel was the most (in)famous place in England. Its streets were seen as violent and dangerous. This book aims to uncover the reality of East End life, looking at slum housing, immigration and attitudes to women, poverty, violence and crime. Due Jun (English)
